Cassie has been dancing for as long as she can remember! Her formal training started when she was 3 years old in Merced, California where she lived until the age of 7. When she moved to Santa Cruz, the first and most important thing for her was to find a dance studio. Up to this point most her training had been ballet, so she began taking class at The Studio School of Classical Ballet. The Studio was located in the same building as No Limits Dance which is where she found her love for Jazz, Lyrical, and Contemporary dance styles. She trained under Tisha Nusbaum, Athena Knight, and Carrie McCoid at No Limits, and was part of their competition dance team until she graduated from high school. She then went on to the University of Colorado at Boulder, where she majored in Dance and continued to expand her training, building her repertoire in new styles including modern and house. After graduating from college, she moved back home and began her teaching career. It wasn't long before she found her home back with her longtime dance friends, as well as new dance loves at Pacific Arts Complex!
